

If you have recently started working as a teaching assistant or wish to start soon, this complete package will take you right from the basics of what it takes to work in a school environment, all the way to becoming a higher-level teaching assistant. This will help you achieve your goals within 2-3 years, which might otherwise take 8-10 years without these specialist qualifications.

Eligibility Criteria

1. No eligibility requirement to start the first course – Level 2 Award.
2. Need work placement at some point when doing the other courses.

Terms & Conditions

- ❖ It is the responsibility of the learner to check the eligibility requirements of their chosen courses, clearly displayed on our website. This includes any practical work required, which is common for many education and training courses.
- ❖ You are entering into a binding agreement with Britannia School of Academics for the entire bundle and for the entire duration of the agreement. If paying by instalments, you will not have the option to stop paying the instalments. We will reserve the right to demand any unpaid instalments if you stop making the payments.
- ❖ Our offers are very competitively priced and just about cover our costs. Therefore, we will expect timely payment of the instalments without the need to send reminders. We will charge £5 per late or missed payment, without any exceptions. Payment of these penalties will be mandatory or else we reserve the right to block access to the courses and may refuse to provide any further services.
- ❖ Missing 3 payments in a row will suspend your subscription to the package, resulting in us blocking all the services. We will still reserve the right to demand payment of all the remaining instalments and penalties.
- ❖ Since the bundles have been designed to ensure career progression, there is a logical sequence in which we have listed these courses. You will be expected to follow the same sequence, unless there is a good enough case for your tutor to agree an exception. Any exception will be at the total discretion of the tutor, who is expected to understand the technicalities involved. For example, a learner cannot be allowed to start Level 5 Diploma in Education and Training if they have chosen a package that starts from Level 3 Award in Education and Training.
- ❖ Learners will have the right to not do all the courses included in the package. However, they won't be granted any refunds nor will they be offered alternative courses to make up for the courses that they have chosen to leave out.
- ❖ In order to make the deal fair, we have implemented an expiry date of 3 years to complete all the courses. We will be able to apply an extension of another 1 year if the learner has been making reasonable progress on the course but need a bit more time to complete the courses. This term does not apply if you buy any package that includes unlimited number of courses.
